Ten members of the ANGEL-SALOMON family were deported. Among them were seven children. The only photos we have show Isaac, age 16, born in Lille (North department), who was deported from Angers on convoy 8, July 20, 1942 and Rachel, age 14, who was also born in Lille. She was deported on convoy 34, September 18, 1942.

The family lived at Tharon-Plage in Saint-Michel-Chef (Loire-Inferieure department). The father, Haim, born in Smyrna ; the mother, Louise, was born in Constantinople. They were all deported.

Haim was deported with the oldest children : Esther and Isaac, ages 15 and 16. Louise was deported on convoy 34 with the youngest ones : Joseph, Rachel, Sarah, Jacques and Yvonne, ages 13, 14, 12, 4 and only 2.

When convoy 8 left Angers, 27 deportees were taken to the camp of La Lande. They were children and old people who, as a rule, could not be deported at that time. This explains why the family had been separated.
